

Open Meeting Laws Educational Forums

Wisconsin Open Meeting Laws - What are they? Who do they apply to? Andrew T. Phillips, an attorney in private practice with the firm Phillips Borowski, S.C. will be in Door County to conduct two informational programs to help members of the public, as well as municipality and county government elected officials, committee appointees and department heads, understand open meeting laws. An informative and enjoyable 10-part video created by The UW-Extension Local Government Center will be shared to portray real-world scenarios. Each short scenario will be followed by Attorney Phillips offering explanation and analysis. Attorney Phillips brings a wealth of professional experience to this discussion of open meeting laws from his 20 years of experience working with the Wisconsin Counties Association and numerous municipal entities. Join us for this excellent opportunity in Door County to raise your awareness and receive education and information about the law! Attend one or both sessions: Monday, March 30, 2-4 pm Nasewaupee Town Hall and 6:30-8:30 pm Sevastopol Town Hall. These educational events are sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Door County.

