

Civility Project UPDATE November, 2013

Greetings! This Door County Civility Project (DCCP) UPDATE is being sent to participants of activities held since last February to update you on the status of the project.

April 2013 - CORE Planning Committee formed.

May 2013 - Vision, mission and goal statement developed.

DC Civility Project became a fund of the Door County Community Foundation.

DCCP email was set up, domain purchased, and website, Facebook and Twitter launched.

June 2013 - Two trainings conducted for the public in Sturgeon Bay.

2-year strategic plan developed, including a project evaluation plan.

July 2013 - DCCP business cards and Speak Your Peace posters printed.

Letters of introduction to local government groups, schools, businesses and business associations, non-profits, churches, service clubs, and other civic groups drafted.

August 2013 - Speaker's Bureau orientations conducted and resource binders distributed to 20 volunteers.

Presentation to Sturgeon Bay Noon Rotary

CORE Committee met Bill Rizo of the Wisconsin Center for Economic Development.

Boettcher Communications developed DCCP logo, letterhead and banner.

Received Untied Way Grant.

September 2013 - Training conducted for the public on Washington Island.

Presentation at Adult Forum at Hope Church.

October 2013 - Training conducted for the public in Bailey's Harbor.

WDOR Morning Show Interview

Presentation to Sturgeon Bay Visitor's Bureau

November 2013 - Three presentations to employees of Baylake Bank

Total individual pledges to date - 88

Donations received from the following organizations - Ministry Door County Medical Center, Peninsula Pulse, Boettcher Communications, University of Wisconsin Oshkosh, Door County Community Foundation, LWV Door County.

What's ahead? We are beginning to conduct presentations and trainings with individual organizations throughout the county. If you would like to arrange for speaker's bureau volunteers to meet with a business, school, church, service group, non-profit group or youth group, etc. you are affiliated with, please contact us to make the arrangements: dccivilityproject@gmail.com!